Controversial Manston site is now empty

THE Manston migrant processing centre, a holding site for people who arrive in the UK on small boats, is empty, a Home Office source has confirmed.

Thousands of people had been placed in tents at the former military airfield during the autumn, leading to overcrowding and outbreaks of disease.

Officials said that everyone staying at the temporary site has been placed in new accommodation.

It is thought the Government has bought space in hotels to ease the backlog.

The Home Office's efforts have been helped by bad weather in the English Channel, causing a sustained fall in the number of new crossings.

One source said that officials were hopeful that the "next few weeks look OK".

The facility in Kent has been dogged by controversy, including the death in hospital of a man who was staying there, which is being probed, and that the centre was holding up to 4,000 migrants – around three times its 1,600-person capacity.

COVID deaths continue to fall

COVID death registrations in England and Wales have fallen for the third week in a row, as the recent wave of infections continues to subside.

A total of 518 deaths registered in the week to November 11 mentioned coronavirus on the death certificate, according to the Office for National Statistics.

This is down 20% from 650 registrations the previous week and is the lowest number since early October.

Deaths started to climb in mid-September, driven by the latest wave of the virus, but the increase looks to have peaked at 687 in the week to October 21.

This is below the peaks seen in previous waves of the virus.

Separate ONS figures last week showed that infections in England had dropped below a million for the first time since mid-September.

Man trapped doing weights

A GYM fanatic was left trapped under weights for more than half an hour while he waited for the emergency services to come and free him.

The unnamed man w working out at Snap Fitness in Spring Hill, Brisbane, Australia, when he got into trouble.

Firefighters were called, with paramedics arriving shortly after. It took them six minutes to extract the man from underneath the weights.

By this point, he was unconscious and required medical assistance.

He was then taken to Royal Brisbane and Women's Hospital in a critical condition.

There were no staff at the 24-hour gym at the time and the man had to be helped by bystanders.

"His injury happened while doing a seated overhead press in a Smith machine," a gym member wrote online.

'S ANNOYING HIM THIS WEEK?

Begum's abuse tactic is a insult to

ABSOLUTE SHAM: Begum

NO-one asked Shamima Begum to steal money off her family, sneakily buy a ticket, and then disappear to Syria to join the happy head choppers at ISIS.

No-one asked her to get married to one of the terrorist outfit's or to have three kids with him albeit, tragically, she lost all of them.

No-one asked her if she'd ever seen severed human heads inside waste bins among the hellhole of her Islamic State camp.

State camp.

She offered that one up herself, muttering something about how it hadn't really bothered her.

But that was then.

And now we must entirely forget it.

Because the human rights lawyers are here, and as you surely know and as you surely know, if they say it's Thursday, it's fking Thursday.

Circus

Begum is no longer the evil incarnate, the teenager who ran away to the world's deadliest circus. Oh no.

Now she is the poor, put-upon waif who was "trafficked", "groomed", and should, argue her lawyers, at least be let back into Blighty to fight her case.

Meanwhile, there is another young woman of a similar age who doesn't get anything like the publicity of the Londoner who agreed to open wide for the desert rats.

These days, Samantha Smith is a face often seen on the output of GB News commentating on the general goings-on in politics and beyond.

She's bright, articulate, and more than capable of holding of her own in debate against more seasoned operators.

As well as going on the telly, she writes for various posh papers and magazines and is often on the radio,

And she somehow still finds time to study law at Durham University.

But before she became this new voice in the broadcasting world

Samantha was - and still very much is - a victim.

She was systematically sexually abused from the age of five until she was 14.

Just one of the estimated 1,000 young girls who were caught up in the grotesque Telford, Shropshire child sex abuse (CSA) scandal that went on for at least 30 years.

No-one has been punished for what happened to Samantha.

But nor are human rights lawyers tripping over themselves to get to her door – possibly because Shamima Begum is the hottest publicity act n town.

On Monday night, Samantha wrote on Twitter: "Shamima Begum is once again trying to return to the UK, now claiming to be a victim of CSE [child sexual exploitation].

"In my opinion, it is beyond insulting to compare her to victims of CSA/CSE.

CSA/CSE

CSA/CSE.

"Begum chose to leave the UK, stitched suicide vests for ISIS and said she had 'no regrets'. We are not the same.

"Every appeal has failed thus far, so Begum and her lawyers are trying every 'card' to get the result they want.

"Personally, it is disgusting to see the very real pain and abuse experienced by thousands of girls across the country used as nothing more than a trial tactic.

"And no, I won't be hearing from the 'you were groomed/abused so you were groomed abused so you should sympathise with her' crowd. We are not the same.

"I will always support other victims and survivors. She is not one. It is an insult to suggest otherwise."

FK ME SO HARD YOU MAKE MY EYES WATER!

-+ Warning

Dear Bexi.

I'M a massive fan of the Midweek Sport – I buy the paper every week and really love the photos of pretty glamour girls in it.

I regularly dash off to the bogs at work with the paper, to enjoy them

I mentally caress their boobs and slide my hands up their soft thighs, and all these erotic thoughts set me up for a hard day at work.

There are just so many amazing girls in your paper, I couldn't spills in the control of the country of the cou

I watched as he took her knickers on and tongace and me wet fanny.

She was loving it and was begging him to fk her, so he did her from behind on the couch. He was pounding away and her tits were swinging all over the place.

Then she took it up the arse, something she has never let me do!
But I found it a real turn-on watching her shagging another bloke.
I'm now thinking of asking her if I can watch her when she has sex with other men, and not just my mate.
I'd particularly like to see her being spit-roasted by two blokes at the same time. Do you think I should ask her to arrange it?

THERE'S a nympho called Nicky who lives in our area, who's mad for dogging and sex with strangers.

She's sex mad and most evenings can be found in a local car park with a few cocks up her chuff.

I've seen her in action myself and while I've belted a couple off the wrist watching her turn a few tricks, I've never shagged her.

I've never shagged her.
But the other night, after a few pints in the local, I was in a right randy mood and I knew there were a few spots on the edge of town where she liked to get her in-car entertainment.

Dear Bexi.

MY girlfriend pretends to bite my knob while she's giving me a blowie. Not properly, mind – she just occasionally scrapes her teeth along my length or the tip.

She says her ex really got off on it, but it freaks me out and I haven't been able to climax in her mouth, even though her gobbling technique is first rate.

Any advice?

goodbye to the creepy Crawleys of Downton Abbey and hello to the horny hotties of buxom

For all you red-blooded fellas who love your porn but are bored to tears by dull Downton Abbey this is your lucky day.

Released last week, the IIK's most highly Released last week, the UK's most highly anticipated adult movie is available exclusively through the Sport's adult partner Private Shops and, for a limited time they're offering readers another £5 OFF the already low, low price.

OFF the already low, low price.

Down On Abby is a big budget, full length adult masterpiece starring porn legend Ben Dover and a cast of the hottest adult stars around. It will transport you to Bottomley Manor, home to the Lord Grabhem (played by Ben Dover), his wife (and 2014 AVN nominee) Jasmine Jae, and their two young promiscuous stepdaughters, Abby and Fanny.

The Grabhems have invited the Stiffies to dinner and their staff, led by butler Smalle and footman Master Bates, hurriedly prepare to receive their honoured guests.

But during preparations some members of staff have their own ideas of how to make the night go with a bang! As dinner approaches it seems everyone's got more than fancy nosh on their minds. Mind you, there is plenty of noshing as well as lots of other filth that will even cause a crease in plenty of noshing as well as lots of other filth that will even cause a crease in Carson's keks.

We see plenty of R18 DVDs at the Sport but this one is really something special and one you MUST not miss!

This future classic stars Ava Dalush as Missy, Cathy Heaven as Lucy, Emma Leigh as Betty, Jasmine Jae as Lady Wanda Grabhem, Jasmine James as Fanny Grabhem, Jess West as Lady Stiffie, Lexi Lowe as Abby Grabhem, Ben Dover as Lord Will Grabhem, Big Bad Dave as Smithers and Clarke Kent as Master Bates.

at Wetherby.

A bumper scorer for Alastair Ralph in January 2021, he was recruited by Dan Skelton at the start of last term and went on to offer a very healthy return on his new connections' investment, winning three of his six hurdles starts.

Skelton opted to make the move to fences this term and the decision paid an immediate dividend as he secured a comfortable success at Ffos Las at the start of the month. That was a two-runner affair, but Knickerbockerglory impressed with his jumping career and twice a winner at the Festival, he has met with a few bumps in the road after switching to fences but is still a three-time Grade One winner over the bigger obstacles and was third in last season's Champion Chase.

He moved back up to three miles at Down Royal earlier this month and showed he is again going to be a force in winning the Champion Chase.

De Bromhead said: "He ran well in the Champion Chase, but obviously I got the trip completely wrong. It might be a blessing in disguise as he's in mighty form now and was really good the other day.

"I think we plan to go to the King George and then we'll see after that."

ROBERT Page says Wales remain outsiders to qualify for the World Cup's knockout stages after a dramatic opening day of Group B action.

England took early control of the section by thrashing Iran 6-2 before Wales had to rely on captain Gareth Bale to salvage a 1-1 draw against the United States.

Bale, who moved level with Chris Gunter on 109 caps – the record for the Wales men's national team – cancelled out Timothy Weah's first-half strike from the penalty spot eight minutes from time after Tim Ream had clattered into

Rice happy to silence doubters

DECLAN Rice revealed recent criticism of England left the players with a "fire in their bellies" to prove the doubters wrong at the World Cup.
England went into the Rice said the questions over the squad and manager Southgate were ones the players were keen to answer.

"It was a positive start," he said.

"There were a lot of doubts about us before the tournament. There has been a lot of talk about us not winning in our last six matches.

driving seat in Group B as Wales went on to draw 1-1 with USA, who Southgate believes will give the Three Lions a wake-up call when they meet on Friday night if his side are not careful.

"By the end we looked sloppy but just before the end we were pretty good," Southgate said.

"I've said to them I've got to try and balance how I feel because we've played so well and we've dominated the game, and there were so many good performances.

"Our job over the course of this week has been to try and concentrate on the football and I think the players' focus all week has been excellent," Southgate said. "We felt they were ready. You're never sure how that's going to transfer and the first half was a bit sticky with the long stoppage for the goalkeeper. "But we really used the ball well

"But we really used the ball well and our attacking threat was there for everybody to see."

Southgate largely stuck with the tried and tested for the Group B opener, making just two changes to the side that started the heartbreaking Euro 2020 final defeat to Italy.

Bellingham was one of those brought in, with the 19-year-old shining on a day when he opened his international account and became England's third youngest World Cup starter.

"They both work so well for the team, they've got a modesty and a humility about the way they play and the way they carry themselves.
"I think that is what we have with this group of players – the whole squad – and we've got to make sure that today is just the start point and that we show that humility now in how we go about our work."

again."

Kane expressed disappointment at not being able to wear the armband, and his team-mate Jack Grealish said it was "a bit stupid" that he had been prevented from doing so.

Kane wore a FIFA-approved 'no discrimination' armband instead to avoid being booked.
